Our earnings

When we sell you a policy the insurer pays us a percentage commission from the total premium that you are charged. If the type of policy we sell reaches specific profit targets the insurer may also pay us an additional bonus. You are entitled, at any time, to request information regarding any commission which we may have received as a result of placing your insurance business or arranging premium finance.

Please be assured that at no time will the way in which we are remunerated conflict with our responsibilities to meet your needs and treat you fairly. For arranging premium instalment facilities, we earn Zero commission from our premium finance provider. This means that the amount you pay for credit and the overall cost of arranging your insurance will vary according to the interest charged by the lender.

Using premium finance makes the overall cost of the insurance more expensive.

A full breakdown of the cost of your insurance and the cost of credit will be provided as part of your new business or renewal quotation before you make a decision whether to proceed.

Additional earnings

In some circumstances, depending on the level of work involved, we may also charge you a separate fee however this will be discussed and agreed before any work is done on your behalf.

This Terms of Business Agreement constitutes both your acceptance that we may do this and your prior request for us so to do.

Protecting your money

Prior to your premium being forwarded to the insurer, and for your protection, Juno hold your money as an agent of the insurer. This means when you pay us or one of our agents, your policy will be treated by the insurer, as though it has received the premium.
